Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-19 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claims 1 and 9, in addition to other elements in the respective claim, the prior art does not teach an apparatus having a low voltage differential signal receiver coupled to a second end of a communication channel while a current mode logic receiver remains coupled to the second end of the communication channel.

With respect to claim 15, the prior art does not teach a method having a step of removing power from an at least one internal resistor of a current mode logic receiver when a communication channel is to carry low voltage differential signals, wherein the current mode logic receiver provides a termination impedance with the at least one internal resistor.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Don P Le whose telephone number is 571-272-1806. The examiner can normally be reached on 7AM - 5PM.
